Alliance Inspection Management To Exhibit At Automotive Marketing Event

June 11, 2013 By autocon3

First Class Educators is pleased to announce that Alliance Inspection Management (AiM) will be an exhibitor at the 2013 AutoCon automotive marketing conference.

Alliance Inspection Management conducts automotive inspections for manufacturers, dealers, finance companies and fleet operators with thousands of cars. All of AiM's clients share a common goal of verifying the condition of their cars and trucks through standardized inspections that guarantee consistent and accurate reports delivered in a timely manner. AiM is the industry leader with nearly 600 highly trained field-based employees inspecting more than 10-million new and used vehicles annually throughout the U.S. and Canada.

AiM's web-based logistics and scheduling system utilizes real time software, handheld wireless computers and a state-of-the-art Information Technologies infrastructure to deliver previously unattainable levels of customer service and support, as well as enhance operational efficiency. Their service combines hands-on field inspection experience with a unique OEM/financial perspective to meet the needs of both buyers and sellers.

For more information on AiM, be sure to visit AiM at their booth during AutoCon or log on to <http://homepage.aiminspections.com>

Top Industry Vendors Coming Together at Automotive Marketing Event

AiM joins over a dozen other vendors in the automotive sector that will exhibit their products and services to the leading dealerships in the country.

AutoCon is an extension of the widely popular Automotive Digital Marketing Community (ADM) created by Ralph Paglia and the industry's largest automotive social networking site, DealerElite.com, created by Chris Saraceno and Mike Myers. During the conference, these communities, which boast thousands of members, will move their online conversations, education and discussions to an educational conference format. AutoCon is the only automotive marketing event that creates a customized experience for each attendee. Attendees can start the conference with a complimentary Business Assessment. The purpose of this assessment is to help direct them to the workshops, labs, speakers, and vendors that can best meet their needs. This not only helps every attendee maximize their time at the conference but it also ensures a unique and custom experience for all.

AutoCon 2013 is being produced by First Class Educators (FCE), a leading event planning company whose events have earned the highest the highest dealer and supplier ratings in the automotive industry.

For more information or to register for the conference, please visit <http://www.autocon2013.com>. Early bird registration specials end July 4, 2013.
